DUFF, GORDON & CO. SHERRIES—embracing delicate Pale at very low prices, rare old, and some very choice MANZANILLA, all on draught by the gallon. Also, rare old delicate AMONTILLADO, in casks of sixteen gallons, specially selected for consumers. Some EXTRA AMONTILLADO in bottles, put up in Europe, which he challenges as equal to any that can be produced.

""The MANZANILLA and AMONTILLADO Sherries are peculiarly adapted to convalescents, as they strengthen without stimulating, and have not the acid of many other wines.

"PORT WINES—principally specially selected for his sales to consumers from the stock of "Bundarism's," at Oporto, and imported direct.

These Wines are fruity and delicate, and have been highly approved by his customers because of their manifest superiority over all Forts and RED Wines palmed off as such.

They are of various sorts and prices, in bottles and on draught by the gallon, or wholesale by the cask. Among them is some rare delicate WHITE PORT and MALMSEY PORT.

As to the SPARELING WINES of the subscriber, it is well-known that the MOST EXTRA CHAM-PAGNE, and the splendid SPARKLING MOSELLE, imported by him, are superior to any other Wines, and are sold at prices as low as most of the inferior wines now in the market, which are put upon buyers as first class.

He has also CHAMPAGNE WINES of various brands and qualities, at very low prices, retail or wholesale. In the article of CLARET WINES, generally, the subscriber holds himsef to be a judge, and he offers the finest stock here, from the very lowest price, by the single dozen, to the first class or "gremier cru" of MEDOC.

Of BURGUNDY WINES he has a large stock, and can assure consumers that he can present to them, from his vaults, as good a bottle of Burgundy as France affords.

In the articles of COGNAC and other BRANDIES he has now a fine stock, embracing some very old extra of 1800, of Orand, Dupuy & Co., and some celebrated "CLAVIER of 1821," in eighth casks, and 1842 in hogsheads, and "DUBOUCHE," 1844, in hogsheads, on consignment, which will be sold low.

The leather horse mail bags are to be made of good and substantial bag leather, well tanned, weighing not less than 7 ounces to the square foot, and the seams to be well and strongly sewed, or, if riveted, to be so done as neither to chafe horse nor rider.

POSTAGE.—When sent with a cover it is ranked as a pamphiler, and costs 41 cents. Without the cover it comes within the definition of a newspaper given in the law, and cannot legally be charged with more than newspaper postage.

MONTHLY PARTS.—For such as prefer it in that form, the Living age is put up in monthly parts, containing four or five weekly numbers. In this shape it shows to great advantage in comparison with other works, containing in EACH PART double the matter of any of the quarterlies. But we recommend the weekly numbers as fresher and fuller of life.

and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle grand between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. The American Publishers, therefore, deem it proper to call renewed attention to these Periodicals, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.
In these periodicals arecentained the views, moderately, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical. "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review," Whig; and the "Westminster Review," Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highestorder. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being, in fact, a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage by this combination of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued.

The above periodicalsare reprinted in New York,
